

CB1000R

Aggressive, edgy, cool and composed – the CB1000R is the refined essence of motorcycling with an unbeatable combination of sophisticated urban styling, eye-watering performance, agile handling and endless thrills. Its compact and muscular form carries the punch of full-blooded litre-class Super Sports. Its lightweight and compact RR-derived inline-four engine delivers electrifying jolts of power focused on exhilarating low-to-midrange torque. The suspension, wheels and lightweight disc brakes also come from the Super Sports class, giving nimble handling and quick, easy control. A Combined-ABS version is also available, for optimised braking control in all riding situations.
